

Code	Subject Title	Cr. Hrs	Semester
BBA-304	Web Engineering	3	V
Year	Discipline
3	Business Administration

Course Objectives :

The course intends to introduce students with the knowledge and skills necessary to develop web applications by using Web development tools and technologies.

Course Contents :

History of world wide web; Internet protocols; Internet service; Web browsers; Markup languages; Building static pages using HTML; Introduction to DHTML; Including filters; Building static pages using HTML. How to make a serviette, deploy a serviette access a serviette. Sending the request from HTML page. Use of ASP to implement dynamic web site development. Introduction of XML, valid and well formed XML file. About web descriptor and directory structure. War file and how to deploy web application after making own directory structure
